

The path to CLOSING
is just a LENDING HAND
away

Don't let credit issues detour your applicants' dreams of homeownership. Lending Hand, an exclusive score consulting service of Credit Plus and its highest-tier scoring tool program, can give applicants the highest probability of a successful rescore. Whether you're targeting an increase of 5 or 105 points, or a specific product, lender or rate tier, our experienced credit experts go beyond typical automated scoring tools to provide customized solutions that work.

BUILD YOUR BUSINESS BY CLOSING MORE LOANS

Lending Hand can boost your bottom line as you help declined applicants qualify for mortgage loans. This innovative program is exactly the support you need to close more loans and get your customers into the homes they want.

"Thank you for the excellent work. My happy clients are closing on their new home this month!"

-Tom Buslee, NMLS#374309, Vice President

Simply the best mortgage information services

*A random sampling of 500 declined loan applications that were re-reviewed using the Lending Hand program showed 83% of borrowers reached their target credit score.

Note: Through Lending Hand, Credit Plus experts work exclusively with loan officers and do not have direct contact with loan applicants. The loan officers communicate plans to applicants.

LENDING HAND PROVIDES:

In-depth analysis of each credit file

Evaluation of how various financial decisions may impact the score and timeline

Time saving, personalized action plans for optimal success in a rescore or repull of credit
